

We would petition to legislators not to diminish the current privacy laws. Their effectiveness seems unparalleled; instead of 15-20 calls each week we only reach 1 or 2. Needless to say, by answering the phone less and less we have more quality time with family and to attend to household chores. Thank you for making that possible.